JOHN L.'S TELEGRAM BAKER 'CRYING DRUNK,' GOV. WHITMAN MAKES FIRST INSPECTION OF SING SING; WILL NOT REMOVE EITHER OSBORNE OR RILEY, HE ASSERTS

Laughs at Report He Will Make His Secretary Head of Prisons.

OSSINING, N. Y., July 7 .- Gov. Whitman visited Sing Sing prison for the first time this afternoon, was made an extra guest at Mrs. Walston H. Brown's tea party at the jail, had a long talk with Warden Thomas Mott Osborne and indicated plainly that neither Mr. Osborne nor State Superintendent of Prisons John B. Riley, who are at odds, will lose his job unless one or both shall take a sudden notion and resign.

The Governor's rather sudden visit was due to the quarrel that has arisen between Riley and Osborne which led the Prison Superintendent to declare yesterday that Mr. Osborne had repeatedly disobeyed his orders and had mismanaged things at Sing Sing. Gov. Whitman would not discuss their dispute to-day, but left no doubt that he would keep out of it unless it be to act as a peacemaker. If it comes to a showdows: however, the Governor is likely to stand with Warden Osborne. A report that Mr. Whitman would look for Riley's resignation and would appoint his secretary, William A. Orr, to the prison superintendency, brought only hearty laughter from the Governor and true why doesn't he investigate me? I Mr. Orr. Mr. Whitman said he was not contemplating giving Mr. Orr Riley's job The Governor telephoned from Al-

Returning to the warden's office he stepped out on the worch, while on the greensward below him outside the prison greensward below him outside the prison wall, and totally unguarded, the convicts' band struck up "The Stars and Strpes Forever." When they finished Mr. Whitman clapped vigorously. He observed one youth in the band whom he knew well—Paul Geidel, serving twenty years to life for murder.

"I shall do nothing about prison affairs until I have looked into the State pris-ons, at any rate," Mr. Whitman said.

His only comment afterward on the prison itself concerned this cellblock. "I think it is a disgrace to the State," he said. By way of contrast he saw the new dirt tennis court and the ball field. Then he went through the shops.

"Oh, I don't think I ought to say anything about that," answered the Governor quickly. He was asked if he had seen the 200 beds in the dormitory Gov. Whitman said in answer to que Mr. Orr. Mr. Whitman said he was not contemplating giving Mr. Orr Riley's job "immediately." He did not deny that he had considered him in connection with the job and said that Orr had always been much interested in prison work.
